

9HOTEL REPUBLIQUE

PARIS

"Add a few letters to Paris, and it's paradise" - Jules Renard.

In December 2015, after more than 12 months of major works, 9HOTEL COLLECTION has opened its 3rd Parisian establishment, 9HOTEL REPUBLIQUE.

Located in a calm street in the 10th arrondissement, a stone's throw from the buzz of the Place de la République and the Canal Saint Martin, 9HOTEL REPUBLIQUE offers an intimate and warm interpretation of refuge.

The Castel Veciana Arquitectura studio was commissioned to restore the building dating from 1846 (a former hotel) as well as conceptualise the living spaces and the 48 rooms. One of the project's ambitions was to keep the Haussmann façade intact, while modernising it with a more contemporary language.

The midnight blue façade of the ground floor thus becomes a filter between the hustle of the outside world and the soothing interior of an urban refuge. The oak flooring and the floating bench encircling the ground floor provide structure for a unique space that offers different zones to meet the various needs of the clientèle. Pale and neutral tones contribute to an intimate atmosphere filled with tranquillity and calm.

"White is the unifying element of the interior. The wood and decor add warmth", explain Jordi Castel and Jordi Veciana.

The lobby is a living space between home and office.

It's a place for experiences and for freedom, with a self-service bar offering a selection of natural wines from winegrowers. The signature aroma evokes the scent of fields of wild grasses. Elements such as the virgin wool rug from New Zealand, throws draped over armchairs and sofas, books and a collection of trinkets create a convivial atmosphere. The decor, lighting, carefully selected music... it all comes together to build a chic, simple and tranquil ambiance.

The rooms have been designed in the same style as the lobby, uniting simplicity, quality and functionality. They feature warm materials with understated and contemporary decor.

9HOTEL REPUBLIQUE's location is ideal for wandering around the Canal Saint-Martin quarter on foot or by bike; the best of bohemian and romantic Paris. Surrounding the hotel, designer boutiques, trendy bars and restaurants bring the quarter to life. The nearby Marais and Grands Boulevards are also perfect for shopping, cultural outings and night-time adventures.

The 9HOTEL REPUBLIQUE was conceived as an urban refuge but also as a venue for gathering and sharing. Its completely open living spaces create a soothing yet communal ambiance. Sheltered from the chaos of the city, 9HOTEL REPUBLIQUE is the perfect place to seek refuge and feel at home, to relax, work, read, love, meet, find, rest, dream, laugh, start projects... all with a whole team waiting on your hand and foot.
