PARIS

The spaces embody a low-key minimalism and are filled with light wood finishes and Scandinavian-inspired furniture.

Part of the 9 Hotel Collection, with properties in Paris, Brussels, and Lisbon, the 9 Hotel Republique is set in a vibrant Parisian neighborhood close to restaurant- and bar-packed Place de la République and Canal Saint Martin. Designed by Barcelona-based Castel Veciana Arquitectura studio, the spaces embody a low-key minimalism and are filled with light wood finishes and Scandinavian-inspired furniture. The lobby sets the tone from the moment you step inside, filled with books and light-but-comfortable lounge chairs. Each of the 48 cozy guestrooms is white and spare, with parquet flooring and rainfall showers. A self-service bar in the lobby encourages guests to slake their thirst 24 hours a day.
